SOCIAL SECURITY TRIBUNAL MEMBER: Mark BORER

DATE OF DECISION: September 22, 2014

DECISION: Leave to appeal refused

DECISION

[1] On February 12, 2013, a panel of the board of referees (“the Board”) determined that the appeal of the Applicant from the previous determination of the Commission should be denied. The Applicant filed an application requesting leave to appeal to the Appeal Division on July 3, 2013.

[2] The Applicant’s application was filed outside of the 30-day time limit. I note that the Applicant attempted to file her application at a Service Canada centre on June 5, 2013, also outside of the 30-day limit. The Applicant explains that she did not appeal earlier because when she received the decision she “was too overcome with stress to deal with it”.

[3] I also note that although the Applicant disagrees with the conclusions of the Board and states that she believes that the Commission is reviewing a number of similar cases, she has articulated no specific error or ground of appeal that could cause me to overturn the Board’s decision.

[4] Because the Applicant has not established an arguable case or properly explained the reason for her late appeal, I decline to allow an extension of time to appeal.

[5] As such, this application for leave to appeal must be refused.
