SOCIAL SECURITY TRIBUNAL DECISION
Appeal Division

Leave to Appeal Decision by: Mark Borer

Date of Decision: April 26, 2017

REASONS AND DECISION

[1] Previously, a member of the General Division dismissed the Applicant's appeal. In due course, the Applicant filed an application requesting leave to appeal this decision to the Appeal Division.

[2] Subsection 58(1) of the Department of Employment and Social Development Act (DESDA) states that the only grounds of appeal are that:

(a) the General Division failed to observe a principle of natural justice or otherwise acted beyond or refused to exercise its jurisdiction;

(b) the General Division erred in law in making its decision, whether or not the error appears on the face of the record; or

(c) the General Division based its decision on an erroneous finding of fact that it made in a perverse or capricious manner or without regard for the material before it.

[3] The DESDA also states that leave to appeal is to be refused if the appeal has "no reasonable chance of success".

[4] In his submissions, the Applicant objected to the General Division member's conclusions but did not set out a ground of appeal which had a reasonable chance of success.

[5] Notwithstanding this, I note that on the face of the record the General Division member may not have applied the correct legal test in coming to his decision (such as at paragraphs 20, 22, and 28 of his decision, among others).

[6] For this reason, I find that this appeal has a reasonable chance of success and that this application for leave to appeal must be granted.
